Spa-Francorchamps, Belgium

SPA BELGIUM

Often referred to as the “Pearl of the Ardennes”, this Belgian mountain town is where the word spa comes from. Famed for its multiple natural mineral springs, the town is home to Europe’s original health resort - it’s in the name!

A trip to Spa is not complete without visiting its hot springs and mineral waters, the perfect antidote to a weekend of action-packed racing. A neoclassic marvel for incoming tourists is the Casino de Spa. For those who fancy a flutter, this is still a very much functioning casino, so bring your passport (and some money!). For racing fans, the Musée de Circuit de Spa-Francorchamps, located a mere six miles away from the track at Stavelot Abbey, is packed full of racing vehicles, information on the history of the track, as well as an original taxi from 1912. A trip to Spa and Belgium without sampling some of its unique delicacies like a cone of frites and waffles frosted with icing sugar and whipped cream is a trip wasted. In the heart of Spa you will find L’Art de Vivre, widely regarded as the best restaurant in Spa. Try it.

Attend the FORMULA 1 BELGIAN GRAND PRIX 2021 at Circuit de Spa-Francorchamps with F1 Experiences, the Official Experience, Hospitality & Travel Programme of Formula 1, with access including driver meet-and-greets, Paddock Club™ Reception, Exclusive Pit Lane Walks and more!
