Suzuka, Japan

SUZUKA JAPAN

As a small town in Japan, Suzuka is a place of traditional Japanese living among the Ise Bay where the Suzuka International Racing Course is the main attraction for the town.

Just north of the town is one of Japan's major cities, Nagoya. In the middle of Japan in the Nobi Plain, Nagoya thrives in culture and metropolitan vibes from its 2 million inhabitants.

As a hub of industry and commerce within the country, Nagoya is home to many international corporations, most notable being Toyota Motor Corporation. This city also holds the SCMaglev & Railway Park which is a museum to Japan's train history. They currently have plans set to build a bullet train that would go from Nagoya to Tokyo in 45 minutes along the Tokaido Shinkansen. Nagoya also has its own specialty meal, Hitsumabushi, which is freshwater eel, grilled, and slathered in a rich, dark sauce and then served over rice. Another great location to visit is the Nagoya Castle where you can walk through the palace while visiting the vast grounds covered in cherry blossoms and expansive gardens.

Attend the FORMULA 1 JAPANESE GRAND PRIX 2021 at Suzuka International Racing Course with F1 Experiences, the Official Experience, Hospitality & Travel Programme of Formula 1, with access including driver meet-and-greets, Exclusive Pit Lane Walks and more!

Accompanied by F1 experts, our Guided Track Tour is an exciting opportunity to ride around the circuit and see the track from the drivers' point of view. Feel the turns and undulations of each corner while embracing the unique views around the track. Previous guests have seen drivers and other teammates studying the track.

A man and a woman are smiling and posing for a photo. The man is wearing a blue checkered shirt and has his arm around the woman's shoulder. He is also making a peace sign with his other hand. They are standing in front of two large, ornate trophies that look like the F1 World Championship trophy. The background is a blurred night scene of a racetrack with lights and other people.
